

John Greer
Utilities Board Analyst

John Greer is a Utilities Board Analyst for the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury. John is staff to the Utility Management Review Board and the Water and Wastewater Financing Board and is responsible for preparing and presenting all materials to both Boards. John also provides assistance to utilities on a variety of technical, managerial and financial issues, and creates plans to bring utilities into compliance for financial distress, excessive non-revenue water and low validity scores.

John joined the Comptroller's Office in 2010 with the Division of Municipal Audit. He began working with the Boards in 2013. John has also served as part of the Comptroller's Legislative Team and continues to provide utility-related assistance to legislators.

John is a graduate of Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tennessee and received his Master of Accountancy from Lipscomb University in Nashville. He has also been credentialed as a Certified Fraud Examiner.

In his spare time John enjoys hunting, fishing, golfing and public speaking. John and his wife Kayci have travelled on mission trips and love playing with their Cockapoo, Genevieve.
